LOUISVILLE
CHAPTER

KENTUCKY
NUMBER 1

Presents

Its Twelfth Quartet and Chorus

Musical Show

"A Musical Festival of Champions"

Greetings

As President of the Louisville Chapter of the S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. (Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America) I welcome you on behalf of the entire membership and sincerely trust that you will have a most enjoyable evening. You are about to be exposed to a satisfying form of singing known as barbershop harmony. Those of you who have attended our shows before, I am sure, have been looking forward to this night; and those who are attending their first show will find barbershop harmony very contagious as it will linger in your memory. I am sure that you will be humming some of the songs that you hear when you leave the theatre.

Some of our songs are gay, others are of a nostalgic character. This makes them appealing as they fit into the pattern of everyday living.

I wish to thank each member of our Chapter for the time and support he has given to present this show to our good friends who have come to hear and to see us.

We certainly appreciate the fine response from our friends whose advertising appears in the pages of this program.

Now relax for a while and forget the cares of the day. Join us in an evening of harmony. Thank you for coming.

The Kentucky Colonels make their home in Versailles, Ky., the home of Governor Chandler.

The origin of their name comes from an act of the Governor who has commissioned each chorus member a Ky. Colonel. We are proud to have them on our show as they typify not only good Barbershopping but a true spirit of Kentucky.

MISCHORDS
Chi Omega Sorority
University of Louisville

We welcome the mischords Gayle Mills, Gwyn Mills, June Noble and Carolyn Jan Smith to our show. In addition to their sweet musical harmony they also provide beauty and charm to our presentation this evening.

They are not to be denied their right as champions as they are currently the Barbershop Quartet Champions (Women's Division) University of Louisville.

We are honored in having them as one of our guest quartets in our lineup of champions.
